

SURFACE PRINTABLE PACKAGING TAPES

When a client receives your product, you rely on the package to communicate for you. And, you expect your message to read loud and clear. That's why Surface Printable HP Series packaging tapes from Shurtape® are crafted to help you make a great first impression.

Combining the premium performance qualities you expect from HP Series packaging tapes, Printable HP Series communicates your text and graphics cleanly and clearly with a directly printable surface that offers superior ink anchorage without pickoff.

Printable HP Series is designed with efficiency in mind. It offers faster drying times and an exclusive release coat technology that allows for consistent – and quieter – unwind. And, with strong adhesion to surfaces, you know your contents will arrive safely and securely.

The Shurtape logo features the word "Shurtape" in a bold, sans-serif font. The "Shur" is in blue, and "tape" is in white, set against a dark blue rectangular background. A registered trademark symbol (®) is located at the top right of the blue background.
